FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

During last few months we have organized 3 eye camps, one orphan marriage and one camp for physically challenged people to provide them artificial limbs.

Through this approach your trust is continuously moving forward to to serve a huge needy population in Jammu And Kashmir state.

Thank you
Prof. Jagbir Singh Sudan

SERVICES FROM THE TRUST BEING HONOURED BY MINISTERS

Recently PWD minister and District Development Commissioner, Poonch recognized the services, which Trust has been providing to hundreds of poor people since 1990.

The minister appreciated the fact that the trust has established very strong credibility in Kashmir region and people approach Trust office knowing very well that here people are benefited solely according to their needs and circumstances. A person from any religion, caste or creed may come here and avail the facilities.

Punjab Government Cabinet Minister, Sardar Suchha Singh Langhe visited the artificial limbs repairing center. The minister was received by Prof. Jagbir Singh, Sardar Prithpal Singh and Mr. Sanjay Raina. The minister met several handicapped and was impressed how hundreds of handicapped have been benefited by Trust through repairs of their artificial limbs in this center.

The Cabinet minister went through all activities of the Trust, met several children who have been continuing their studies through scholarships being provided by the Trust and also met few old people whose cataract operations have been organized by the Trust. The Cabinet minister was indeed impressed by initiatives, which have been taken by Trust to organize eye operations for many small children especially for young ones to restore their lost eyesight.

9 small children receiving Vidya Prakash Vaid Scholarship through Trust to continue their primary and middle class education.

A havan programme was organised at Baba Garib Das Sthal wishing for peace in this crucial area of Krishna Ghati.

CAMP TO PROVIDE ARTIFICIAL LIMBS TO HANDICAPPED

Trust also organized a camp for the handicapped providing limbs to approx. 300 people.
